

Welcome to the 19th Annual Oak Bay Artists' Studio Spring Tour 2018

A self guided free event presented by:

Oak Bay Artists' Studio Tour

April 21 & 22, Noon-4:30pm

victorlotto.ca

Victor Lotto

2605 Cotswold Road
250-592-3585

An award winning painter in acrylics and watercolour, Victor invites you to his studio to see his latest paintings from Canada and his travels overseas.

Pam Stonehouse

2995 Westdowne Road
250-298-4218

Nature photography (BC, UK, and Kauai); Pam explores trees, water, flowers, animals and the unexpected by foot, bike and canoe. Cards, prints, canvas, and metal.

Donna Ion

2682 Topp Avenue
778-677-3223

"As well as my forest paintings, I will be showing small abstract landscape and floral paintings"

Avis Rasmussen

2576 Estevan Avenue
250-598-3188

Welcome to original printmaking: studio, garden, travel, and jazz themed linocuts, drypoints, frottage, collographs, etchings, lithographs, and illustrated chapbooks. Print your own card!

avis.rasmussen37@gmail.com

Sandi Madsen

2527 Dalhousie Street
250-598-7013

The studio is full of beautifully handcrafted pottery.

• Map numbers are for reference only
• Please choose your own route

Oak Bay Bowker Creek Brush Up Art Show will be held on Sunday, August 12, 11am-4:30pm.
For information see oakbayartists.com.

Flo-Elle Watson

1871 St. Ann Street
250-592-0832

Using up-cycled white porcelain for her canvas; Flo-Elle creates an original one-of-a-kind, permanent, non toxic, and functional piece of art. Flo-Elle welcomes you, come and view her latest creations.

floelle.artist@gmail.com

6

7

Anne Hansen

2260 Dalhousie St
250-381-7313

Anne has been struggling to keep pace with worldwide demand for oystercatcher art since 2007.

oystercatchergirl.blogspot.com

Linda Lindsay

2507 Florence Street
250-598-5895

Linda is a well-known figurative sculptor and international instructor working in clay and bronze. Come hear about the process of creating a sculpture.

lindalindsaysculpture.com

8

9

Jean Betts

2215 Florence Street
250-595-2726

Jean's textiles reflect her continuing studies in Japan and 40 years of weaving experience. Handwoven silk scarves, linens and decorative pieces using handspun yarns and natural dyes.

onesmallstitch.wordpress.com

robertamos.com

Robert Amos

2041 Brighton Avenue
250-389-0303

Overflowing with creativity, Robert's studio is a must see. Paintings of Oak Bay, musings about James Joyce, books and prints and umbrellas. Don't miss it.

11

11

Sarah Amos

2041 Brighton Avenue
250-389-0303

Oil paintings of Oak Bay, Victoria and the Interior of B.C. will be on display. Illustrated: Bridal Lake, Kootenay Pass.

www.sarahamos.com

These four artists will be displaying their art
at the Neighbourhood Learning Centre,
2121 Cadboro Bay Road
(adjacent to Oak Bay High School)

10

Myra Baynton

250-385-1657

A selection of water colour and acrylic paintings that represent local and international settings.

These works are inspired by the vibrancy of nature and travel.

Vivian Lochridge

778-433-8559

Vivian's style is direct. Her brush strokes evoke a kind of synesthesia, the sound of colour. She explores, in oils, the balance and harmony of form.

Arlene Davey

250-592-0587

In Chinese Brush Painting, the choice of subject matter, simplicity of composition and direct manner of execution bring life to this traditional medium.

Heather Midori Yamada

778-265-8529

Heather returns to show her works on paper, watercolours, Japanese 'washi' paper collages, cards, and prints.

artyamada.com

Oak Bay Artists' Studio Art Tour

brought to you by

 Oak Bay
Parks, Recreation
& Culture
recreation.oakbay.ca

erikthorn@hotmail.com

Erik Thorn 12

1164 St. Patrick Street
250-598-5787

"My work, mostly in acrylic, reflects my love of colour, natural patterns and details." Exhibition and collections in Canada, France, Scandinavia, and New Zealand.

Paul Shepherd 15

957 Byng Street
250-588-3058

Keeping it simple. A new series of landscapes emphasizing colour and form representing a more abstract direction.

www.shep-art.com

12

Miriam Thorn

1164 St. Patrick Street
250-598-5787

"I use oil pastels, watercolours, mixed media and photography inspired by natural forms and music." Exhibitions and collections in Canada, U.S.A., U.K., France, Scandinavia, New Zealand and Australia.

16

Val Wouters

737 Transit Road
250-508-4342

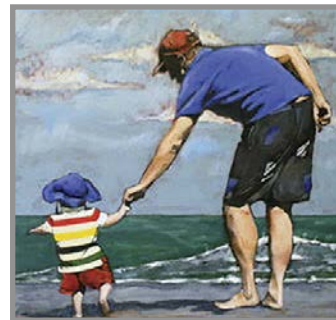

"My work is an expression of what I see in nature and I use oils or encaustic medium as a vehicle for my perceptions."

Joan Turner 13

1027 Roslyn Road
778-265-3035

"I am at a new location but my art is still the same! Vibrant colours! Looking forward to seeing art lovers!"

Bruce Vallance 17

590 St. Patrick Street
250-598-0880

"Despite mediocre talent" in his recent paintings Bruce has managed to impress and challenge. His garden and renovated studio makes this a 'must see' visit.

13

Joanie McCorry

250-858-2443

Showing at 1027 Roslyn Road

Discover the new magic Joanie has created via her three dimensional paper castings, collages and photos. New greeting cards on display.

peridotulips.ca

17

Myrna Germaine-Brown

590 St. Patrick Street
250-598-0880

Myrna welcomes you to her studio to view her latest work. Oil pastel on fabric. Come see!

Marie-Andrée Allison 14

962 Island Road
250-598-0987

Represented in several ancient media, the subjects displayed are either figurative or abstract. A long-time visual artist and art educator, Marie offers demonstrations in some of the techniques.

marieandreeallisonfineartstudio.com

Lindy Michie 18

648 Linkleas Avenue
250-592-5163

"I strive for a simplicity in my paintings without the clutter of too much detail. I am inspired by nature, colour, light and form."

lindymichie.com

Oak Bay Artists' Studio Art Tour

brought to you by

Oak Bay
Parks, Recreation
& Culture